| Standing order             | The account provider makes regular transfers,on the instruction of the customer, of a fixedamount of money from the customer'saccount to another account.A relevant payment account service pursuant tosection 2 (6) ZKG is rendered when money istransferred in euros within the EEA states.   |
| Direct debit               | The customer permits someone else (recipient)to instruct the account provider to transfer moneyfrom the customer's account to that recipient. Theaccount provider then transfers money to therecipient on a date or dates agreed by thecustomer and the recipient. The amount mayvary.A relevant payment account servicepursuant to section 2 (6) ZKG is rendered whenmoney is transferred in euros within the EEAstates. |

| Justified refusal to collect a direct debit                                   | The fee applies when the payment serviceprovider is justified in refusing to collect a directdebit in euros within the EEA states.  |
|---|---|
| Justified refusal to execute a payment order                                  | The fee applies when the payment serviceprovider is justified in refusing to execute apayment order in euros within the EEA states.   |
| Cards and cash  |   |
| Providing a debit card  | The payment account provider issues a payment card linked to the customer's account.The amount of every transaction with the payment card is directly debited to the customer's account.  |
| Providing a credit card   | The payment account provider issues apayment card linked to the customer's account.The total amount of the transactions with thepayment card within an agreed period of time isfully or partially debited to the customer'saccount at a certain date.
